Across the globe, youth voices are demanding action on climate. Climate Speaks presents an opportunity for you to join in and use your voice to make a difference.

As a participant, you will have the chance to:

- Learn about climate change and creative writing
- Receive coaching from expert poets and performers
- Compete for an opportunity to perform your own original writing piece
- Perform your original work at a variety of venues

Climate Speaks is FREE and open to all high school students living in the New York City metropolitan area. No experience needed!

Presented in partnership with the NYC Department of Education Office of Sustainability with special thanks to Urban Word NYC.
